Preparations for Listing in the Regulated Market Being Made

Promotion of the international orientation

Buonas, May 16th, 2011 – The MAC Capital AG announces that the KPMG accountancy firm (Switzerland) has been commissioned with the inspection (financial audit). In addition, the KPMG will also follow the conversion process to the international IFRS standard.

The MAC Capital AG will strive for listing in the regulated market in the next months. This important step is the basis for the involvement of large institutional investors who want to follow the MAC Capital AG in its development.

In the same way, the MAC Capital AG announces that the internationally established company, Moore Stephens, has been commissioned with accounting and Swiss tax consultancy since January 2011.

In addition, the internationalization of the concern will be promoted via the prepared joint ventures. This way, MAC Capital AG will fulfill the requirements of local markets as well as those of international financial markets.

Hartmut Thome, President of the Administrative Board, says: "With these two companies, the MAC Capital AG is well positioned for the future. Once available, the company figures for the year 2010 will be published in accordance with the IFRS standard."
